

“TALENT SHOW”

The Contest of Multimedia Projects

The teacher: Good morning dear guests, dear teachers and dear students!

I am very glad to see you today and invite you to the “Talent Show”. Most of you have been studying English for seven years and reached good results.

So, I’d like to tell why we study English. English language is socially demanded nowadays. English language is needed as the main and the most efficient means of information exchange of the people of our planet. English is the language of aviation, international sport and pop music. In many countries it is the language of business, commerce and technology. English is the language of modern computing. So, English is the official language in 44 countries, where it is used in education and administration. They are Great Britain, Canada, the United States of America, Australia, New Zealand and some other countries.

Moreover you enjoy doing multimedia projects in English. That is why we decided to hold a contest of multimedia projects among the 9th-formers.

So, let’s begin!

Pupil 1: You know, this year we have learnt a lot about Great Britain.

Pupil 2: I agree with you and would like our audience to go on an imaginary trip around Great Britain.

P1: It’s a good idea, besides we can travel everywhere with the help of our imagination.

P2: Not only with the help of imagination, but also with the help of multimedia presentations that our students have made.

P1: We want to tell you about the British.

P2: Their country, capital and traditions.

P1: Their holidays, food and population.

P2: So you are welcome to our projects’ presentations!

P1: Let me introduce you the participants (they have numbers) of our today’s contest of multimedia projects. They are the pupils from 9th form (называет фамилии и имена участников

P2: - Now the first participant is going to represent his project “Great Britain” and he is invited to the blackboard.

P1: - Thank you. And now another project about British Food.

P2: - Thank you. And now another project about English Meals.

P1: Thank you. And it is time to continue our contest. So, I invite another participant to the blackboard. We are going to listen to the information about Holidays.

P2: Thank you. And another participant today will tell us about Christmas.

P1: Thank you. And another participant today will tell us about New Millennium. New Food.

P2: I want to say “thank you” to all today’s participants. Now the teachers will have some time to discuss the results of the contest and to tell us the results and your marks.

P2: And we shall enjoy the Video about Schools in Britain.

P1: Very well. Our teachers have finished their work. The word is given to T: First of all, we want to thank all the students who have taken part in the contest today. Your works were interesting and useful. Your works gave us the opportunity to turn to Great Britain from different points of view. Besides, they may be helpful during the lessons.

Now about the results. What was taken into consideration? First of all, how full you have covered the theme of your project, then how fluent and correct your speech was, then time limit and design.

So, your marks are
